$800-$1,000

25. Erotic Ivory Cane

Ca. 1880-Unique ivory ball knob carved with three erotic scenes in heart shaped framing. The very daring scenes within the sphere are expertly carved with extraordinary facial expressions and body language in an incredible miniature.

Faux sprig blackthorn shaft fitted with a silver collar and a worn metal ferrule. H. 2" x 2", O.L. 33 1/2"

$4,000-$5,000

26. Ivory Art Nouveau Day Cane

Ca. 1900-Large ivory crook handle with a reclining Venus, malacca shaft and octagonal ivory collar and an ivory ferrule. This cane conjures memories of a distant dream which is inhabited by languid female figures. H. 5 3/4" x 4 3/4", O.L. 35 1/2"

$3,000-$4,000

27.

27. Ivory Elephant Cane

Ca. 1880-Substantial ivory knob carved to depict a full bodied striding elephant using its prehensile trunk for foraging, integral plinth with a dot ring and an ebony shaft with plain silver collar and a metal ferrule. Delicate undercuts. H. 3 ¾" x 3", O.L. 36" $3,000-$4,000

28. Erotic Cane

Ca. 1880-Substantial ivory handle "His" on the front and "Her" on the back, finely chased gilt collar with engraved initials, malacca shaft and a metal ferrule. Well used classic cane in jumbo size and with an age grown patina. H. 5" x 1 ¾", O.L. 35 ½" $1,500-$2,000

29. Ivory Erotic Cane

Circa 1890-Very unique ivory ball knob plain on one side and carved in low relief with an erotic motif on the other. Turned ivory collar and a well figured Congo wood shaft with a metal ferrule. Suggest feminine intimate parts. H. 2 ½" x 2", O.L. 33" $1,200-$1,800

28.

29.

30. Ivory Cat Head Cane

Ca. 1890-Substantial ivory knob naturalistically carved to depict a cat head with long whiskers and bowtie, finely chased and gilt metal collar with engraved initials "C.I.W.", ebony shaft and a metal ferrule. This cane strikes the essence of cat portraiture and brings up the feline personality in a lovable way. It was perhaps the bright color of the ivory which motivated the previous owner to call this cane "The White Prince". H. 3 1/4" x 2", O.L. 37 1/2"

$1,800-$2,500

30.

31. Ivory Erotic Cane

Ca. 1890-Large ivory handle showing a reclining nude woman with the head and chest covered by a wrinkled bed sheet, malacca shaft and a brass ferrule. A flawless, smooth and sun bleached surface with an adequate delicate patina surely adds to its appeal and lends the handle an irresistible, tactile sensuality. H. 4 3/4" x 2 1/4", O.L. 34 3/4"

$3,000-$4,000

32. British Buttock Erotic Cane

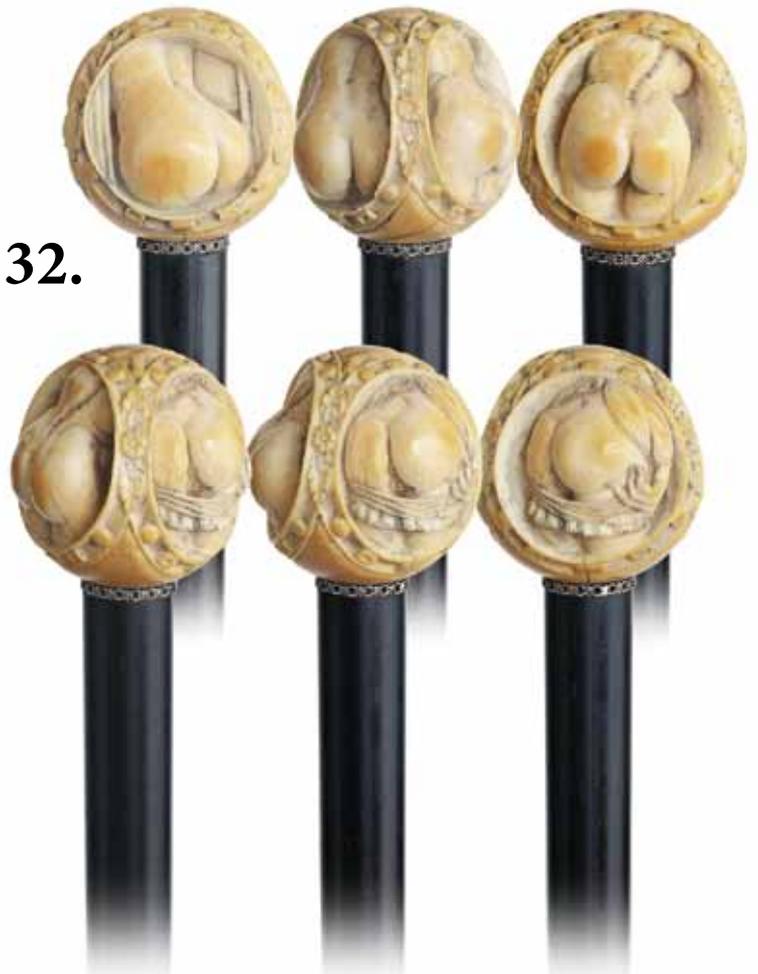

Ca. 1890-Erotic ivory ball knob handle with delicate carving in incredible miniature detail, ebony shaft with a slim silver ring filigree collar and a long stag horn ferrule. H. D. 2", O.L. 39"

$3,000-$4,000

31.

32.

34.

36.

33.

33. Large Ivory Rabbit Cane

London Hallmarks 1908-A wonderful example of the much admired horizontal English ivory rabbit's head with furry coat and backwards extending long ears, malacca shaft and a brass ferrule. H. 4 3/4" x 1 3/4", O.L. 37"
$2,500-$3,500

34. Walrus Ivory Snake Cane

19th Century-Vertical right fist clenching a snake, ebony shaft and a stag horn ferrule. Elaborate carving in fine detail and with beautiful openwork and above all very decorative. H. 4 1/4" x 1 3/4", O.L. 38"
$1,000-$1,400

35. Ivory Nude Cane

Ca. 1890-Fine grained elephant ivory opera handle carved with a reclining nude on each side, malacca shaft with a silver collar and a 2 1/2" long stag horn ferrule. H. 4 1/2" x 1 1/2", O.L. 34 1/4"
$1,500-$2,000

35.

36. Ivory Seal Cane

Birmingham hallmarks, Ca. 1890-Large single piece ivory handle fashioned in a basic T-shape and naturalistically carved to depict a sleek-bodied seal and with short and wide flat flipper limbs. Ebony shaft with a brass ferrule and a wide silver collar with engraved scrolls and the "A.G.K." initials above an apparently later added presentation date "1925". H. 4 1/4" x 3", O.L. 36 3/4" $1,400- $1,800

37. Ivory Nude Cane

Ca. 1870 -Very large ivory L-shaped handle with a standing beauty at the front, flush set silver initials "WL" at the back, ebony shaft and an ivory ferrule. Way out of the ordinary in the size and quality and in superb condition. The great artistry demonstrated here is underscored by the satin texture of the ivory and its flawless, smooth and light bleached surface which also lends this feat of feminine beauty an irresistible, tactile sensuality. H. 9 1/4" x 4 1/2", O.L. 37 1/4"
$3,500-$4,500

37.

38. Ivory Elephant Cane

Ca. 1880-Large ivory handle carved to depict a prone elephant. Finely chased silver collar, dark rosewood shaft and a stag horn ferrule. The bulk animal is amazingly adapted to the form of the handle, and the raised ear secures a perfect ergonomic shape. The cane was obviously used with great caution. H. 4 3/4" x 2", O.L. 37 1/4" $2,500-$3,500

39. Ivory Rat and Vine Cane

19th Century-A very fine carved ivory clamping rat on a one piece vine shaft fitted with a metal ferrule. The cane is emphasized by an eye catching small ivory rat with down hanging tail applied in two parts against each other to give the impression that it goes through the dark wood. Ivory Rat 4 1/4", O.L. 34 1/2"
$1,800-$2,500

39.

40.

40. Erotic Ivory Cane

Ca. 1890-Large ivory crook handle with a naked couple in an erotic embrace. Very daring for its day, the well-aged handle comes on a malacca shaft with a plain turned ivory ring collar and a metal ferrule. H. 4 ½" x 3 ½", O.L. 35 ¼"
$2,000-$3,000

41.

41. Ivory Pierrot Cane

19th Century-Ivory handle fashioned of the tip of an elephant tusk and carved to depict a Pierrot head. Much of that mythic quality of the clown adheres to this very portrait with a compelling smile, frilled collaret and oversized, outlandish conical bonnet. Malacca shaft with a plain silver collar with obscured London hallmarks and a stag horn ferrule. Quality cane, very fine carving and superb patina. H. 6 ¾" x 1 ¾", O.L. 36 ¾"
$1,500-$2,000

42. Figural Ivory Day Cane

Ca. 1920-Ivory handle fashioned of a single piece in a basic Opera shape on a rosewood shaft with a stag horn ferrule and silver collar with obscured London hallmarks. The well-proportioned handle is plain on one side and carved with a hunting dog and flowers on the other. Superb quality and intact. H. 4 ¾" x 1 ¾", O.L. 36 ½"
$900-$1,200

42.

43. Anglo-Colonial Souvenir Cane

Dated January 1st,
1896-Substantial ivory handle carved on the top and in high relief "Souvenir Mayumba J.W.C.Africa January 1st, 1896" and decorated on the sides with etched leaves. Malacca shaft with a white metal collar and a metal ferrule. H. 4 1/2" x 1 1/2", O.L. 35 1/2" $600-$900

43.

44. Ivory Dog Head Cane

Ca. 1900-Well carved greyhound head in a beautifully stylized L-shape and longer muzzle with strong teeth and a pair of inset glass eyes. Dark rosewood shaft with a stag horn ferrule, silver collar engraved "GLATZL" with Austo-Hungarian hallmarks. Intact.
H. 4" x 1 1/4", O.L. 37 3/4"
$800-$1,000

46.

45. Ivory Revival French Cane

Ca. 1890-Straight ivory handle carved in the Middle Age style with two portraits against one another. The young girl and young man are rendered in high relief and painstaking fine detail and framed by very rich and elaborate decorative elements. The handle, possibly symbolizing marriage, comes on an ebony shaft with a stag horn ferrule. H. 3 1/4" x 1 1/4",
O.L. 38 1/4"
$800-$1,000

45.

46. Ivory Turf Cane

19th Century-Stretching urn shaped ivory handle with a horse head in a horse shoe within two beaded friezes, matching silver collar with obscured London hallmarks, dark rosewood shaft and a stag horn ferrule. H. 4 1/2" x
1 1/4", O.L. 36 3/4"
$700-$900

47.

47. Ivory Rats Cane

Ca. 1890-T-shaped Opera ivory handle carved in deep relief with rats, oak leaves and acorns. While the panels are different on each side, the rodents are naturalistically rendered with pointed snouts, long tails and the amusing bat ears. Furthermore, they are enlivened by inset glass eyes. The sizeable handle comes on a cocobolo shaft with a gilt silver collar with hallmarks and a horn ferrule. H. 4 1/2" x 1 3/4", O.L. 36 1/4"
$1,000-$1,500

48.

48. Ivory and Ebony Dress Cane

Ca. 1870-Ivory knob delicately carved with a crown over an integral collar with stylized leaves centered by a ring of dots, ebony shaft and an ivory ferrule. Top rate French quality and as fresh as on its first day. H. 1 3/4" x 3/4", O.L. 36"
$500-$700

49.

49. Marine Cane

Ca. 1850-Walrus ivory pistol shaped handle on a substantial, one piece baleen shaft with a metal ferrule. The plain and slightly tapering shaft itself shows the specific layered structure of the noble material of the ocean and its dark color with coveted brown-greenish hues. H. 3 1/2" x 1 1/2", O.L. 33 3/4"
$800-$1,200

50.

50. American Wild West Cane

19th Century-Ebony and ivory handle inspired by a revolver grip, hardwood shaft with a metal collar and missing ferrule. Rarely encountered cane with few dents in keeping with the age and the merits of a well-used surface. H. 5 1/4" x 3 3/4", O.L. 37 3/4"
$400-$600

51. Ivory Cats Cane

Chester 1897-Straight walrus ivory handle carved with three cats in a cleft with jagged edges, finely engraved silver collar with Chester hallmarks 1897, ebony shaft and a metal ferrule. Charm is the trademark of this cane which was probably inspired by the drawings of Louis Wain, and the passage of time it had endured adds to its magic. H. 4 ¼" x 1 ½", O.L. 34 ¾"

$800-$1,200

52. Ivory Cat Head Cane

Birmingham hallmarks 1892-Well carved cat head in the taste of Louis Wain with two large eyes and a pair of upwards extending, prominent ears marked by a long and bushy fur. Malacca shaft with a long stag horn ferrule and embellished with silver collar engraved by hand and monogrammed in the late Victorian opulence of its day. H. 3 ¼" x 2 ¼", O.L. 34 ¼"

$800-$1,200

51.

53.

53. Ivory Owl Cane

Ca. 1900-Ivory knob carved to depict an owl holding a writing feather in its paw and perched on a paper scroll, richly colored and well streaked rosewood haft with a long stag horn ferrule. The micro carved bird shows fine detail and is presented on a turned ivory base with a hexagonal center part. H. 1 ¾" x 1", O.L. 37 ¾"

$500-$700

54. Memento Mori Skulls Cane

Ca. 1900-Straight stag horn handle carved with human skulls piled over one another, a symbolic reminder of the inevitability of death, malacca shaft with a plain white metal collar and iron ferrule. H. 4 ½" x 1 ¼", O.L. 35 ¾"

$600-$800

52.

54.

55.

55. Ivory Chrysanthemums Cane

Ca. 1890-Long and straight ivory handle carved in low relief with a flower composition dominated by large chrysanthemum buds and irises, ebony shaft and an ivory ferrule. First rate work of art. H. 8 1/2" x 3/4", O.L. 39"
$700-$900

57.

56. Dieppe Ivory Badine

19th Century-Long ivory handle delicately carved in high relief with, what seems to be, an allegory of the summer. One can see wheat spikes, flying birds and flower garlands among other decorative elements. Rosewood shaft with an ivory ferrule. H. 5 3/4" x 1 1/2", O.L. 36 1/2"
$500-$700

56.

57. Revival Ivory Cane

Ca. 1910-Ivory Pharaoh bust on a longer knobbed stem with ebony dot inlay on an ebony shaft with a horn ferrule. Anglo-Egyptian cane from the Revival period and contemporary to the great excavations discoveries of early 1900s. H. 6 3/4" x 1 1/4", O.L. 37 1/4"
$700-$900

58.

58. Ivory Thanksgiving Mascot Cane

Ca. 1890-Rounded ivory knob with an encircling ring of various fruits and vegetables and a four leafed clover, well dressed Malacca shaft and an ivory ferrule. Excellent quality and great condition. H. 2 1/4" x 2", O.L. 37 1/4"
$700-$900

59.

59. Ivory and Ebony Art Deco Dress Cane

Ca. 1895-Carved ebony handle with two full nudes on a large ivory plinth collar, ebony shaft and a 2 1/4" ivory ferrule. Directly linked to the rich and distinctive heritage of the Wiener Werkstätte, this cane is Viennese Art Deco. H. 3 1/2" x 1 1/2", O.L. 38 1/4"
$400-$600

60. Ivory Cat Cane

Ca. 1900-Ivory pistol-grip handle carved with a cat portrait, well veined rosewood shaft with a silver collar and a stag horn ferrule. Rarely encountered in the widespread cane repertoire this cane radiates a delightful feline charm. H. 2 ½" x 2", O.L. 37 ¼"
$700-$900

61. Noh Masks Ivory Cane

Ca. 1890-Japanese export ivory handle carved with four rows of Noh Masks accoladed to one another in various sizes and with different expressions. Ebony shaft with a plain silver collar and a missing ferrule. Rarely seen in such a large size and with similar fine detail. H. 3 ¾" x 1 ¼", O.L. 38"
$700-$900

62. Ivory Erotic Cane

19th Century-Ivory knob fashioned in the stylized shape suggesting the leg of a woman with bent knee, garter and stockings, malacca shaft with ivory eyelets and braided dark silk loop with tassel and an ivory ferrule. The front of the knob is carved in low relief with a discreet panel, showing a sex panel with a woman involved with two men on a trefoil. It is thought to have a French origin.-H. 2 ¾" x 2 ¼", O.L. 37 ½"
$800-$1,200

63. Figural Marine Cane

Ca. 1880-Sperm killer whale tooth carved with a seaman portrait, faux sprig hardwood shaft with metal eyelets and a metal ferrule. Reputed to have a Russian origin, this cane came with an interesting story that lends it a unique identity: It was supposedly made of a salvaged ship rudder broken by the bite of an aggressive whale which left the incisor hanging in the wood. The sailor who repaired the boat portrayed himself on front of the incisor handle, the boat on the back and made the shaft of the rudder wood. The cane was recently refreshed by an expert hand and is now ready for a new life episode. H. 3 ¾" x 1 ½", O.L. 35 ½"
$600-$900

60.

61.

63.

62.

64. Satirical Ivory Dog Cane

Ca. 1890-Ivory handle carved to depict a humanized dog dressed as a gentleman with a formal suit and riding cap. Ebony shaft with a wide silver gilt collar with obscured hallmarks and a horn ferrule. It has character and personality, is possibly French and well conserved only with a secured crack to the visor of the cap. H. 2 3/4" x 2", O.L. 39 1/4"

$700-$900

65. Ivory Baseball Player Cane

Ca. 1900-An expert carving of an early Wagner or Cobb decked out in an early uniform, silver metal collar, exotic wood shaft and a metal ferrule. H. 3 1/4" x 1 1/2", O.L. 35 1/2"

$2,200-$2,500

64.
